

Do I need a Special Event Permit for a Garage Sale?

No. Residents are permitted to hold 2 garage sales per year, per location, no less than 6 months apart. For example, a resident who holds a garage sale in January is eligible to hold one more garage sale but not occurring prior to July of that same year.

Are signs permitted to advertise for a Garage Sale?

Yes. Residents are permitted to display one Garage Sale sign on the property in which the Garage Sale is being held. Garage sale signs are not permitted at intersections or within public right-of way. Signs must be constructed and displayed in accordance with Sanibel sign regulations.
