

Mayor Ruane and Sanibel City Council Release Their Letters to Senators Nelson and Rubio and Congressman Radel Regarding Impending Negative Impacts Due to Changes to National Flood Insurance Program If Prompt Action Not Taken

Carol Reed

09/11/2013 11:18 am

September 13, 2013

Contact - City Manager's Office (239) 472-3700

Mayor Ruane and Sanibel City Council Release Their Letters to Senators Nelson and Rubio and Congressman Radel
Regarding Impending Negative Impacts Due to Changes to National Flood Insurance Program If Prompt Action Not Taken

Today Sanibel Mayor Kevin Ruane and the Sanibel City Council released their letters to Senators Bill Nelson and Marco Rubio and Congressman Trey Radel regarding impending negative impacts due to changes to the National Flood Insurance Program if prompt action is not taken. In addition to writing to our Federal representatives, the Sanibel Mayor and City Council also sent similar letters to Governor Scott and local government officials statewide.

Please click here (pdf 1.23 MB) to access the letters

You may contact the Senators and Congressman by clicking here.