Dear Center 4 Life members,

The Center 4 Life/Island Seniors Inc. is enjoying a very busy 2016 so far! All exercise classes have been well attended as well as our day trips, bridge, mahjong, kayaking, potluck, theatre, book discussions, Arts & Crafts Fair, Wednesday hotdog lunches and Health Fair! Whew! Thank you for your support!! We continue to explore new offerings, ideas for future programming and outreach to our members.

With the continued growth we are all feeling the space crunch and look forward to finding solutions to further strengthen C4L. To that end, C4L and our community partner organizations are working collaboratively to bring to fruition the civic core project. This project envisions a new campus of community organizations that include C4L, Big Arts and the Community House. For C4L this would include larger exercise room, classrooms, activity room, larger social space both indoors and outdoors and improved parking and public access space.

This is a work in progress with representation from all the constituents involved. Currently we have 1) a site plan, 2) determination of the needs of each organizations, 3) preliminary framework for each organizations operational responsibilities with the City, 4) estimation of overall project cost including partial funding sources, funding to be negotiated and actual cost by organization.

We look forward to continuing to focus on a welcoming atmosphere, best service and program offerings to the seniors of Sanibel.

Sincerely,

Tom Ledgerwood, President of Center 4 Life

Thursday, June 23rd
Cabbage Key Cruise & Lunch
 Members $70; Non-Member $77

Cabbage Key is a true "Old Florida" island hideaway. The main house which is now the inn and restaurant, was built in 1938 by playwright and novelist Mary Roberts Rinehart. You will find the wallpaper at Cabbage Key quite interesting. It is made up of autographed dollar bills that are taped to the wall and ceilings. Your narrated cruise to Cabbage Key will take just over an hour, leaving you just over two hours to purchase your lunch and enjoy the scenery. A panoramic view of Pine Island Sound is provided from the front porch of their open-air restaurant situated atop a thirty-eight foot Indian shell mound. It is said that Jimmy Buffet was inspired to write the song "Cheeseburger in Paradise" while visiting this rustic fisherman's pub type setting. Cabbage Key offers a short nature trail and a water tower on which you can climb to the top for some fantastic snapshots.

Tuesday, July 26th

Last of the Red Hot Lovers
at The Off Broadway Palm Theater
Members $33; Non-Member $38

We will begin our afternoon with lunch at Cristof's on McGregor (on your own). Then make our way to The Off Broadway Palm Theatre. Here's a synopsis; Last of the Red Hot Lovers is one of the most amusing of Neil Simon's comedies. It focuses on Barney Cashman, a forty-seven-year-old owner of a seafood restaurant who is afraid that the sexual revolution of the 1960's is passing him by. Over the space of nine months, he invites three different women to his mother's Manhattan apartment in an attempt to have an afternoon of extramarital sex. None of the affairs is consummated, however, and Barney decides after the last one that he would prefer a romantic afternoon with his wife, Thelma. By e notes

Lunch at 11:30 a.m. and show begins at 1:15 p.m.

The Great Santini by Pat Conroy - Wednesday, June 8th

Movie- "Bull Meechum (Robert Duvall) is a great fighter pilot -- so great that he dubs himself "The Great Santini." While his take-no-prisoners attitude and willingness to fight has served him well in the military, he's unable to turn it off at home. Eventually his competitive nature and abusive behavior take their toll on his relationships with his wife (Blythe Danner) and his rebellious 18-year-old son (Michael O'Keefe) after a friendly father-and-son basketball game turns ugly."

Room With A View by E.M. Forster - Wednesday, July 13th

Movie- For most of "A Room With a View," E. M. Forster's third novel (1908), Lucy Honeychurch does her best not to live as she plays. While on a holiday in Florence, chaperoned by Charlotte Bartlett, her maiden cousin, Lucy has no idea that she's fallen in love with the socially unsuitable George Emerson. In the course of a picnic, the handsome, commonsensical young George, carried away by Lucy and the Tuscan scenery, has kissed her cheek - and turned Lucy's world onto its ear." -NYTimes

Fried Green Tomatoes by Fannie Flagg - Wednesday, August 10th

Movie- Nominated for 2 Oscars. A housewife who is unhappy with her life befriends an old lady in a nursing home and is enthralled by the tales she tells of people she used to know. and produced by Will Smith, with his wife, Jada Pinkett Smith, as executive producer.

Brooklyn by Colm Toibin - Wednesday, September 14th

Movie- One of the most unforgettable characters in contemporary literature" (Pittsburgh Post-Gazette), Eilis Lacey has come of age in small-town Ireland in the hard years following World War Two. When an Irish priest from Brooklyn offers to sponsor Eilis in America, she decides she must go, leaving her fragile mother and her charismatic sister behind.

A Gentleman's Guide to Love & Murder

Saturday, January 21, 2017 - 2 p.m.
$125 Member /$135 Non-Member-Premium
$95 Member /$105 Non-Member-Section A

Getting away with murder can be so much fun ... and there's no better proof than the hilarious hit show that won the 2014 Tony for Best Musical — A Gentleman's Guide to Love & Murder! As one most gentlemanly NPR critic put it, "I've never laughed so hard at a Broadway musical!" Gentleman's Guide tells the uproarious story of Monty Navarro, an heir to a family fortune who sets out to jump the line of succession by—you guessed it—eliminating the eight pesky relatives who stand in his way. All the while, Monty has to juggle his mistress (she's after more than just love), his fiancée (she's his cousin, but who's keeping track?) and the constant threat of landing behind bars! Of course, it will all be worth it if he can slay his way to his inheritance...and be done in time for tea. The Hollywood Reporter raves, "Gentleman's Guide restores our faith in musical comedy."

Something Rotten!

Saturday, March 18, 2017 - 2 p.m.
$125 Member /$135 Non-Member-Premium
$95 Member /$105 Non-Member-Section A

From the director of Aladdin and the co-director of The Book of Mormon, Something Rotten! is "Broadway's big, fat hit!" (New York Post). Set in 1595, this hilarious smash tells the story of Nick and Nigel Bottom, two brothers who are desperate to write a hit play. When a local soothsayer foretells that the future of theatre involves singing, dancing and acting at the same time, Nick and Nigel set out to write the world's very first musical! With its heart on its ruffled sleeve and sequins in its soul, Something Rotten! is "The Producers + The Book of Mormon x The Drowsy Chaperone. Squared!"

(New York Magazine).

Beautiful – The Carole King Musical

Saturday, February 11, 2017- 2 p.m.
$135 Member /$145 Non-Member-Premium

Lincoln Center Theater's critically acclaimed production of Rodgers & Hammerstein's THE KING AND I directed by Tony Award® Winner Bartlett Sher won four 2015 Tony Awards® including Best Revival of a Musical. One of Rodgers & Hammerstein's finest works, THE KING AND I boasts a score which features such beloved classics as "Getting To Know You," "I Whistle a Happy Tune," "Hello Young Lovers," "Shall We Dance" and "Something Wonderful." Set in 1860's Bangkok, the musical tells the story of the unconventional and tempestuous relationship that develops between the King of Siam and Anna Leonowens, a British schoolteacher whom the modernist King, in an imperialistic world, brings to Siam to teach his many wives and children.

OVER THE RIVER AND THROUGH THE WOODS

by Joe DiPietro

Saturday, October 29, 2016 Members $32 / Non-Members $37

"A hilarious family comedy...even funnier than DiPietro's long-running musical revue I LOVE YOU, YOU'RE PERFECT, NOW CHANGE!" —BackStage

A hilarious and warm-hearted family fiasco from the author of I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change and the Tony-Winning Broadway sensation, Memphis! See what happens when 29-year-old Nick tells both pairs of doting Italian-American grandparents he's leaving Hoboken to take a dream job across the country. His grandparents are stunned! Why would he want to leave his family and New Jersey? Chaos ensues as his grandparents plot and scheme to find a way to keep him in Hoboken.

A Tony-Nominated BEST PLAY about Dreaming Big!

"An Enchantingly Zany and Original Farce!" —The New York Times

This smart and outrageous black comedy follows the strangest day in the life of a New York zookeeper with big dreams! Artie Shaughnessy has aspirations of being a famous songwriter, but what his downstairs mistress, Bunny, won't tell him, and his wife, Bananas (who is), tries to impart is that Artie's songs stink. But today, October 4, 1964, is different because the Pope is coming to town and miracles are in the air and anything is possible—or so they all think.

TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD

Saturday, February 25, 2017 Members $38 / Non-Members $43

A Poignant and Moving Drama!

The Timeless American Classic Comes to Vivid Life Onstage!

This compelling and timeless story of racial injustice and loss of innocence is told through the eyes of six year old Scout, the tomboyish daughter of small-town lawyer Atticus Finch. As a tense tug of war between justice and bigotry heats up in their small town of Maycomb, Alabama, Atticus and his family must learn to temper violence and hatred with courage and compassion. Adapted from the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, To Kill a Mockingbird continues to inspire hope in the face of inequality.
